War, what is it good for?

Our reading will focus on Aztec stories, myths and factual books in the first half term. In the second half term we will study Judith Kerr's 'When Hitler Stole Pink Rabbit'.

World War Two, what started it all off, leaders, the effect on people living

entries, story writing

Light - how it travels

what it is made up of

Geography: Mexico,the spread of the Aztecs.

Henry Moore

In this term, we will be thinking about the cause and effects of war in the Aztec society and during World War Two. By the end of the term, pupils will be able to give their own views of the causes, reasons and outcomes of war in two contrasting scenarios.